

Program Thursday 3.11.2016

Headquarters of Medecins du Monde
62 rue Marcadet, Paris, France

hepC

European Initiative
Hepatitis C and Drug Use

09.00 – 09.15	Welcome Eberhard Schatz, Correlation Network Elisabeth Avril, Gaia, Paris Miguel Velazquez, Président ASUD
09.15 – 10.30	Chair: Elisabeth Avril Introduction speeches: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Latest information on new treatment options and effectivity &lt;French&gt; Prof. Pialoux, infectious diseases medical professor</li><li>2. Barriers to access: pricing, regulations, discrimination Francois Berdougou, Medecins du Monde</li><li>3. Models of integrated care for the management of HCV-infected PWID Prof. Mojca Maticic, University Ljubljana</li><li>4. The Paris HCV testing and treatment program &lt;French&gt; Dr Dominguez, Program leader, Paris</li></ol>
10.45 – 11.00	Break
11.00 – 12.30	Chair: Fabrice Olivet HCV treatment in community and HR settings: the practice <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Awareness of HIV and HCV status among people who inject drugs Stine Nielsen, Robert Koch Institute, Germany</li><li>2. C-Buddies: missing piece of the puzzle in a comprehensive ‘not under a roof’ approach Tessa Windelinckx, Tonny van Montefort, Stefan Bratovanov, Free Clinic, Antwerp</li><li>3. Example Ukraine: integration of hepatitis services in harm reduction Ludmila Maistat, Alliance for Public Health, Kiev</li><li>4. Enabling drug user groups in HCV Mags Maher, EuroNPUD, London</li></ol>
12.30 – 14.00	Lunch
14.00 – 15.30	Chair: Eberhard Schatz Community based testing and research <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. HCV Testing in community centres: methodology and tools Danny Morris, consultant, UK</li><li>2. Community, home based testing strategies Leon Wylie, Scottish Drug Forum, Glasgow</li><li>3. Community-based research for HCV prevention: the AERLI approach Perrine Roux, INSERM, Marseille, Fred Bladou, Aides, Paris</li><li>4. EasyHCV: Peer strategies to increase access to testing Andrea Fallarini, Isola d’Aran, Torino</li></ol>
15.30 – 16.00	Break
16.00 – 17.00	Moderator: John Peter Kools Round table discussion: What do we need to increase the role of community, peer involvement and harm reduction in the fight against Hepatitis C Chloe Forette, Berne Stralenkrantz, Mojca Maticic, George Kalamitsis, Sebastian Saville

Program Friday 4.11.2016

GAIA DCR

2 bis rue Ambroise PARE, Paris, France

hepC

European Initiative
Hepatitis C and Drug Use

09.00	Welcome Elisabeth Avril, Gaia
09.05 – 10.30	Chair: Conrad Kockert Drug consumption rooms - newest developments <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Drug consumption rooms world-wide: current state of the art and HCV-DCR awareness survey Eberhard Schatz, Correlation</li><li>2. Drugs consumption rooms: The French paradox Marie Jauffret Roustide, INSERM, Paris</li><li>3. The first drug consumption room in France: concept and setting Elisabeth Avril, Gaia, Paris</li><li>4. Supervised injection and HCV awareness and testing Joachim Rasmussen, Fixelancen, Copenhagen</li></ol>
10.30 – 11.00	Break
11.00 – 12.30	Chair: Miguel Velazquez User involvement and self organisation - barriers and opportunities <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Experiences from practice: a drug consumption room without medical staff but with peer workers in Amsterdam Rosi Burrelbach, Cedric Chavet, Regenboog Groep, Amsterdam</li><li>2. Drug user organisation: peer worker in the streets Rui Miguel Coimbra Morais, Sérgio Rodrigues, CASO, Porto</li><li>3. ASUD</li></ol> Discussion How to implement a DCR ? State of the art in Lisbon and Paris Video connection with the City Hall Lisbon
12.30	Site visit GAIA drug consumption room For a limited group of participants

HCV Seminar

'It's time to change the treatment paradigm:
HCV testing and treatment in community and low threshold settings'
In cooperation with GAIA and ASUD

De Regenboog Groep / Correlation Network
PO Box 10887
1001 EW Amsterdam The Netherlands
Phone.: +31 20 5317600
administration@correlation-net.org

The Correlation Hepatitis C and Drug Use Initiative was funded by the EC Commission DPIP programme and received an unrestricted grant by Gilead Ltd and financial support by Abbvie Biochemicals Sarl

www.hepatitis-c-initiative.eu